DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. This communication is responsive to amendment filed on January 8, 2007, where applicant cancelled claims 1-9,12,15-21,28,29, and amended claims 10,11,13,14,25,30. Claims 10,11,13,14,22-27,30 are pending.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Attorney Eric S Replogle (Reg No 52161) on March 23, 2007 (see Interview Summary).

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 30. (Cancelled)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 10,11,13,14,22-24 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 2157

5. Regarding claims 10 and 13, line 1 recites the limitation “A machine readable medium that provides instructions”. A “machine readable medium” is an inactive object that does not possess the ability to “provide instructions”. A “machine readable medium” is a passive medium that does not react or actively participate in providing instructions.

The term "provide instructions" in claims 10,13 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite, in the context of a "machine readable medium". The term "provide instructions" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Examiner suggests amending the claim to a variation of: “A computer readable storage medium having instructions stored therein, which when read and executed by a set of processors...”.

6. Claims 11 and 14 are rejected because they depend on claims 10 and 13 respectively.

7. Claim 22 recites the limitation “creating a control protocol message with the accessed network layer information embedded” on lines 11-12. This limitation seems to be incomplete.

Examiner suggests amending the claim to a variation of: “creating a control protocol message with the accessed network layer information embedded therein”

8. Claims 23 and 24 are rejected because they depend on claim 22.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 25-27 are allowed.
10. Claims 10,11,13,14,22-24 are rejected under 112 second paragraph, but would be allowable if rewritten to correct the indefiniteness.
11. As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
12. For reasons of allowance, please see Office Action dated October 4, 2006.
13. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
